

Vegetation

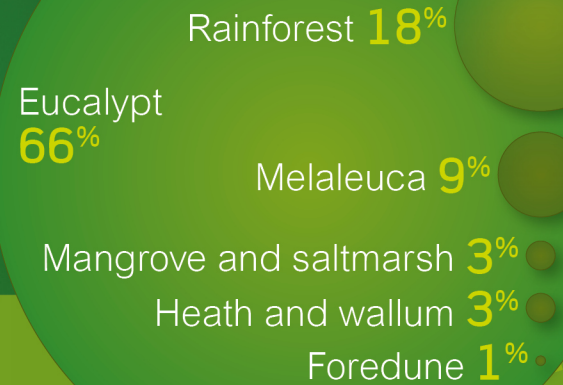

Now
2016

Vegetation
124,283 hectares

Sunshine Coast Local Government Area = 228,477 hectares

Six broad vegetation groups

75 regional ecosystems

Conservation status

State

5 endangered regional ecosystems

28 of concern regional ecosystems

Source: Vegetation Management Act 1999.

Commonwealth

1 critically endangered ecological community made up of 9 rainforest regional ecosystems (Lowland Rainforests of Sub-tropical Australia)

Source: Environment Protection Biodiversity Conservation Act 1999.

71 of 75

regional ecosystems are represented in the conservation estate

Habitat

Vegetation provides vital habitat areas for our flora and fauna

Flora and fauna

Source: Environment Protection Biodiversity Conservation Act 1999 and Nature Conservation Act 1992.

44%

of LGA's vegetation in conservation

Conservation estate

State	Council	Private
40,075 hectares	5742 hectares	13,214 hectares
39,684 hectares vegetation conserved
5139 hectares vegetation conserved
		9438 hectares vegetation conserved
59,959 hectares of land conserving 54,173 hectares of vegetation

