I hereby notify of my intention to move the following rescission motion at the Ordinary Meeting to take place on Thursday 8 November 2018:

That Council rescind the previous Council Resolution (OM18/175) namely:

That Council proceed with the calling of Expressions of Interest for the site known as Brisbane Road Car Park, Mooloolaba in accordance with section 228 of the Local Government Regulation 2012, noting that the calling for expressions of interest would be in the public interest for the following reason:

- the process will allow Council to call for and consider a variety of development proposals, including those that generally align to the existing Development Approval; with a view to identifying the solution that best aligns with the interests of the public and Council.
