

Sunshine Coast Cultural Heritage Reference Group Information and Nomination Package

Information

The Sunshine Coast Cultural Heritage Reference Group provides strategic advice on preserving and accessing cultural heritage in the Sunshine Coast region.

Expression of Interest

The Sunshine Coast Council is seeking expressions of interest from nominees for positions on the Sunshine Coast Cultural Heritage Reference Group (SCHR).

Background and Overview

Nominations are invited for membership of the Sunshine Coast Heritage Reference Group.

The Reference Group works to:

- raise the profile of cultural heritage in the region
- contribute to a shared vision for cultural heritage that is inclusive, relevant and innovative
- support the development of a regional network of individuals, organisations and museums in the heritage sector
- identify partners and opportunities to preserve, access and enhance cultural heritage across the region
- assist in forming strategic priorities for expenditure of the Sunshine Coast Cultural Heritage Levy

The Reference Group will consist of representatives of council, traditional cultural groups, heritage practitioners and architects, historical societies, museums, business, tourism and the wider community.

Community Programs Portfolio chairperson will chair the Sunshine Coast Cultural Heritage Group.

Membership

Interested individuals should have a demonstrated commitment to cultural heritage and an ability to contribute to the identification of needs and opportunities for the region's cultural heritage.

Experience in the heritage sector, business, tourism, creative industries or marketing would be well regarded.

Membership will consist of ten individuals appointed for two years with an option to stand aside after twelve months.

Nominations

Nominations are to include a current curriculum vitae and brief (maximum 200 words each) response to the following selection criteria:

- Briefly outline your experience and engagement in Cultural Heritage on the Sunshine Coast
- Are you currently working in a voluntary or professional capacity with a heritage or tourism body on the Sunshine Coast

- Briefly outline three key strengths you would bring to this role
- Explain how you would contribute to the Reference Group to achieve its aims and objectives

Nominations are to be received by 5pm Saturday, 23 April 2016.
